Alchemy of Soul

Philosophy of Alchemy of Soul:

We bless you with infinite light and embrace you with the energy of the "Alchemy of Soul" so that the light of your soul can shine in its radiant beauty. You are divine and you are sacred!

My name is Anjuna Ma Sara and I am in the service of light as a medium, healer, mentor and divine artist. I am on this path for more than 10 years and have created a Mystery School of Miracles to teach people how to activate their healing powers and artistic gifts. The path of "Alchemy of the Soul" enriches your life with higher wisdom and empowers your soul, your true essence can be revealed. I am channeling directly from Source and work with higher dimensions of healing and ascension. I am flowing beautifully in co-creation with ascended masters, archangels and the Goddess Council as messenger of divine love and healing. I was called to create this beautiful mala to open the portals of divine guidance, healing, ascension and creation to manifest the new Eden in co-creation! The download came this year 2022 in Egypt / Sinai after my Isis Temple journey. The malas are all handmade and co-created with an Egyptian artist who collects the most precious stones and who is fully committed to this divine project. He was assigned to me by the goddess Isis. The photo shooting for this production took place in the magical, sacred waters of the Red Sea.

How does it work? I receive the divine message from an angel or goddess and transfer that energy into a template from which we begin to create and manifest the mala. Each mala has a purpose and is infused and blessed by the divine consciousness to assist souls in their rising. The energy of the mala is directly connected to the consciousness of the light being and you receive all the support to activate your divine potential. You can simply wear the mala daily or you can work with it for your healing sessions or ceremonies. It is always a powerful protector and guide for your life and mission. It is an everlasting art piece which will enrich your life on many levels. You can pray with the 108 beads to activate the essence of the mala, or simply let it work in your field. Every mala comes with an activation prayer that you can repeat whenever you feel it is needed. You will become a portal of light for the new golden earth.

You will rise in love. Anjuna Ma Sara
